Description

Quietly situated on a green lane in rural St Ouen, this luxury granite family property has been transformed to skilfully combine traditional style with the best in contemporary design.

Standing in a large site with stunning gardens, La Cigale is a truly peaceful and private family home. With traditional features running through the property, from wooden beams in the master bedroom to authentic granite walls and fireplaces in the living and dining areas, the property certainly upholds that sought after farmhouse appearance throughout.

The ground floor comprises of a spacious living room and open plan kitchen/diner at the front of the property with coloured units and double Aga, providing plenty of unique character.

A substantial utility and storage room leads to the patio and back garden, with a downstairs house bathroom and second living room towards the back of the property.
